May the peace of Christ reign in our hearts, as it did in your heart, even at the moment of your death. Pray for us and for Ireland. Amen.

Cemetery Sunday

Cemetery Sunday will take place next Sunday 26th June, in St Peter's Cemetery at 3.00pm, and Newtown Cross Cemetery at 5.00pm. We are delighted that for the first time in three years we can come together in person in the Cemeteries. As always, people are invited to prepare their family graves for the blessing. Priests and deacons will bless the graves. If you wish to bring holy water for the sprinkling of the family grave you are welcome to do so.

People may wear a face mask if they choose. Not everyone will yet feel ready to return to the annual Cemetery Sunday celebration, and this is understandable. Some parishioners may prefer to make a private visit to the Cemetery later on the Sunday evening or during the week beginning Monday 27th June.

A video recording of the 3.00pm ceremony blessing of St Peter's Cemetery will be available on www.saintpetersdrogheda.ie and St Peter's Parish, Drogheda Facebook page from 6.00pm on Sunday 26th June.

A Garda Traffic Management Plan will be in operation.

Please comply with directions.

There will be a Gate Collection for the upkeep of the Cemetery. Please use the special envelope in your box (26th June) which can be put into the basket in the Cemetery or in the church. We rely on your support. Thank you.

Masses at 11.00am and 12.00 noon on Sunday 26th June will be offered for all those interred in our cemeteries.

The 10th World Meeting of Families will take place in Rome on 22nd – 26th June on the theme, 'Family love: a vocation and a path to holiness.' Archbishop Eamon Martin will attend.

Armagh Diocesan Synodal Process

The first part of the diocesan synodal process has now been completed. This first phase of the Universal Synod will form the springboard for the ongoing diocesan process of listening and synodal dialogue in the coming years. The Archdiocese of Armagh Synthesis document has been published on www.armagharchdiocese.org and on www.armaghprays.com and has been passed on to the Irish Bishops' Conference for consideration as part of the Irish Church's submission to the Universal Synodal process. The fruits of this phase of the synodal pathway will be reflected on and brought forward as part of both the Irish Synodal Pathway, and the ongoing Synodal journey in the Archdiocese of Armagh.
